Lectionary Thoughts

Today's reflection-Rev. Delmer L. Chilton's Lectionary Lab blog:

Those of us who do too much need help in finding time for self and God; those of us who do too little need a push, a prod, a kick in the pants, to get moving and let our faith be ACTIVE in love. We can get some guidance from a few incidents in our text.

1) We must deal with what is put before us. When Jesus went to Simon's house for dinner, he discovered his host's mother-in-law was sick. In a simple act of compassion, Jesus healed her. Jesus touched her and she got up and served. People heard about it and began to bring people who were sick or had demons to Jesus for healing. And Jesus dealt with what was put before him – he did healings and exorcisms into the night. You can't always chose what it is you are to do, sometimes God chooses for you.

2) While we do need to carve out time and space for ourselves and that personal time does include spirituality and prayer, that's only part of what's going on with Jesus getting up early and going off pray. This episode is a continuation of the temptation, the forty days in the wilderness with Satan. (Mark 1:12-13) Matthew and Luke (Chapter 4 in each) make clear that Jesus temptations were the urge use his power and authority in ways that would attract fame and attention and popularity. Jesus is feeling that temptation one more time. People are astonished at his teaching, the whole city is coming to be healed or to see healing. His fame is growing. He goes to the mountain to search both with God and deep within himself. "Who am I, really? What does it mean to be the Son of God? What am I doing? What am I called to do?" When the disciples find him, Jesus is once again clear on the answers to those questions.

3) Just like Jesus, we have to learn to say no when the demands upon get in the way of a God's purpose. The disciples came looking for Jesus because people had come to them looking for him. They were excited, the people were excited. Jesus of

Thanks To All For Your Prayers

Linda Newcomer would like to thank all who are praying for her husband Gary. Due to this illness our decision to downsize has come earlier than later. We are selling our house and selling lots of our furniture so we can move into a three-bedroom duplex all on one floor. Please look at the information posted on the bulletin boards in the narthex and connector. If you or anyone you know is interested in a beautiful home in Kettering or some very nice furniture contact Linda in the office. (Thanks to Pastor Jamie for allowing Linda to post this in the announcements.)

Nazareth was the “next new thing,” the latest in a long list of faith-healers and exorcist who had emerged in the multi-cultural Galilean region, which was a mix of Hebrews, Greeks, Romans and others. Everybody wanted to see Jesus do his stuff, the time was ripe, the iron was hot. And Jesus said no. Jesus said, “Let us go on to the neighboring towns, so that I may proclaim the message there also; for that is what I came out to do.” Jesus “being” and “doing” had come together. He knew who he was and what he was to do.

I’ve always loved this bit from the writer Anne Lamott: “Again and again I tell God I need help, and God says, “Well isn’t that fabulous? Because I need help too. So – you go get that old woman over there some water, and I’ll figure out what we’re going to do about your stuff.” (“Traveling Mercies,” p.120)

So it is with us; we turn to God for help and God sends us out to help others. Like Simon’s mother-in-law, we have receive a touch from Jesus, and in response we get up and begin to serve others. Sometimes the touch we receive is charismatic. Some people have been sick and were prayed over and got healed. Sometimes the touch is emotional, a crises life or morals that lead one to give up and turn it all over to God, resulting in a conversion and a change of life. But most often the touch is less dramatic than that. Jesus touched us with water in our baptism, Jesus touched us with gentle persuasion in Sunday School, or caring relationships in Youth Group, or a hot meal and kind conversation in Campus Ministry, or week in and week out in our local congregations Jesus touches us in the sacrament of the table, giving his body and blood for us and to us. However we have been touched by Jesus, the call is the same; the call to get up and serve.

The Neighbor to Neighbor Food Pantry! In our friendly contest, the commercials won with 209 items total. The New England Patriots were a slight favorite over the Seattle Sea Hawks with a score of 155 to 128. Thank you for donating almost 500 food items to the food pantry for Souper Bowl Sunday!

As our hunger awareness month continues, please take the Hunger Quiz found in the bulletin insert to learn more about hunger nationally as well as here in Kettering. Also, look for information about the Day of Caring Pancake Breakfast on Sunday February 22. This is another great way to use the resources God has entrusted to us to love our neighbor.

Boy Scout Sunday

THIS Sunday February 8 is Boy Scout Sunday. As a thank you to all that Good Shepherd does to support the Boy Scouts here at our facility the scouts are serving breakfast between services from 9:30 until 11:00 am on Sunday. They invite all of you to enjoy a hearty breakfast as their way of saying "Thank you!" For more information contact Lisa Connelly at 435-6721.

We will also be collecting items for the hygiene pantry at the breakfast. Since 1991, the Day of Caring has emphasized three goals: raise money for the emergency shelter system and the hunger coalition member agencies, raise public consciousness about the needs of the hungry and the homeless, and encourage volunteerism through continuous education and involvement. 100% of the ticket price goes to feed the hungry in our neighborhood. Most of the food is donated by various sponsors so that all of the money collected at Good Shepherd will go to feed the hungry which is
