Lectionary Thoughts

Today's reflection is from the ministrymatters.com:

Since the days of Moses and the commandments, God's people have valued mountaintop experiences, those seasons when our spirits have been lifted and our hearts encouraged. We long to continue in the presence of God. Whether those places have been retreats, camp-meetings, civil rights protests, ministries of justice and peace, revivals, lay missions, Walks to Emmaus, or Volunteer in Mission projects—you name it, we don't want to come off our mountaintops.

We have a similar emotional response when a trusted spiritual leader—who has mentored us, led us, and imparted spiritual wisdom to us—leaves. Our anxiety rises. We fear that if our leader leaves (or much worse, suffers some moral failure), then so also might our spiritual blessings. Without our spiritual head we feel lost, with no momentum and no clear vision. We feel alone. But God reminds us, "I am with you."

Time and time again Elijah says to Elisha, "Stay here." In the same spirit, the voice from the transfiguration cloud says, "This is my Son, the Beloved; listen to him!"

One can almost hear Jesus say as the cloud lifts, "Okay, let's go, time's wasting." There's too much to do, too many places to go, too many people to feed, and too many who need the gospel. We can't linger too long on the mountaintop.

Now let's be clear; we need time for retreat. Those who continue to call for action without time apart miss the balance of the Christian life. Jesus took time away. Jesus took his three friends up to the mountaintop. Jesus understood the necessity of time for prayer, meditation, reflection, and spiritual rejuvenation.

To neglect those times in our lives is to jeopardize our mental and spiritual health and our ability to continue in our mission. Too many Christians throw themselves into projects, advocacy, mission trips, and church programs without proper times for "R&R" (rest and relaxation). (continued on page 4)

One of the lessons we have learned from the devastating disasters of the last fifteen to twenty years has been to call out the caregivers from the round-the-clock giving to a time of retreat. Constant ministry depletes even the strongest commitments.

Following Jesus takes us to:

- quiet places of prayer
- long days of feeding the hungry
- nights in lonely gardens and angry storms
- the ecstasy of mountaintop retreats
- back down the mountain into the valley of need

To follow Jesus requires that we:

- deny ourselves
- watch after ourselves
- take up our crosses
- remember that we are never alone, but always in the power of the Holy Spirit

To follow Jesus means that although we are to stay behind, we are never left behind. To follow Jesus means that although we may feel alone, we are never alone.

To follow Jesus means that while we long for his spirit, we are filled with His Spirit.

Day of Caring Pancake Breakfast

Come enjoy breakfast at Good Shepherd on Sunday February 22 from 8:00 to 11:30 am. This is the annual Day of Caring Pancake Breakfast. Along with the pancakes and sausage we will have egg casserole muffins and fruit. Tickets are $6.00 for adults, $4.00 for Seniors and children. We will also be collecting items for the hygiene pantry at the breakfast. Since 1991, the Day of Caring has emphasized three goals: raise money for the emergency shelter system and the hunger coalition member agencies, raise public consciousness about the needs of the hungry and the homeless, and encourage volunteerism through continuous education and involvement. 100% of the ticket price goes to feed the hungry in our neighborhood. Most of the food is donated by various sponsors so that all of the money collected at Good Shepherd will go to feed the hungry which is our emphasis this month at Good Shepherd.

The Making of Ordinary Saints

This event is coming to Peace Lutheran Church in Gahanna on Friday March 13 and Saturday March 14. All members of SOS are invited to attend. Is your heart longing for a deeper, richer experience of the fruit of the Spirit in your daily life? If so, then this gathering is for you! It will provide...

- ◆ A practical understanding of exactly how the spiritual disciplines function as a means of grace for spiritual formation
- ◆ A fresh retelling of the practice of the spiritual disciplines
- ◆ A lively conversation between son and father about precisely how the spiritual disciplines can help us in our daily life with Christ
- ◆ A doable structure for making genuine progress forward in the kingdom of God

Conference admission includes a copy of "The Making of an Ordinary Saint." More than thirty years after his father's classic book brought them to the masses, Nathan Foster took his own unique path into the spiritual disciplines. As he sought day-by-day to develop habits that would enable him to live more like Jesus, he encountered problems both universal and personal. Along the way, he found creative new ways to practice the disciplines and discovered that a vital, conversational relationship with God was truly within his grasp. "The Making Ordinary Saints" Conference invites you to go deeper into the journey explored in the book. You may just find that holy habits are truly possible for all.

Cost per person is $70; students are $50. Includes lunch and a complimentary copy of "The Making of an Ordinary Saint."
