Lectionary Thoughts

Today's reflection is from the Rev Dr. Delmer L. Chilton at www.lectionarylab.com:

My wife and I have been married for over forty years, and we met while we were still in high school. When you've been together that long, you have a lot of shared memories. Well, actually not so much. What you have is a lot of shared experience which you almost inevitably remember differently. This situation provides a lot of, shall we say "opportunity for vigorous conversation," which usually begins with, "I have no idea who you're talking about. You say we went to dinner with them in Nashville in the 1990s?" or "No, no, no; you've got that all wrong, it was in Hightower in 1979 – not China Grove in 1985." Trust me, sometimes this can go on half the night.

It's a good thing then that we can be sure that God's memory is better than ours; clearer, more precise, and, most importantly, more to be trusted. After all, God has promised that "When I see the bow is in the clouds, I will see it and remember the everlasting covenant." (vs. 16) And what is that covenant? Again, God speaks, ". . . that never again shall all flesh be cut off by the waters of a flood."(vs. 11)

Now most people, especially those of us who were raised in church or synagogue, know the story of Noah and the flood and most of us think of God's promise, at least fleetingly, when we see a rainbow. But how many of us remember that the bow was intended as a sign to God, not to us? How many of us remember that the bow is primarily intended to help God remember God's promise, God's covenant, to not destroy all flesh? I know I didn't. Even though I have studied it many times, I remembered it differently.

This time, as I read the story of Noah and the flood, I kept thinking of something North Carolina novelist, English professor, and occasional scholar of the New Testament Reynolds Price said.

There is, he opined, one sentence beyond all else that people yearn to hear in all stories: "The Maker of all things loves and wants me." (Price, p. 72) Professor Liston Mills of Vanderbilt Divinity School often said a similar thing, "All theological questions boil down to one thing, 'Can God be trusted?'"

The story of the flood is a story that tells us that God can indeed be trusted. It is a meditation upon issues of human sin and divine wrath, of our fragile vulnerability in the face of the world's unpredictable power and violence, and the possibility that God can repent, change God's mind, and in the future remember a promise to be merciful.

Seniors Invited to Tour Moraine Farm with Faith Lutheran

The Faith Lutheran Seniors (a social group) have invited GSLC Seniors to a tour of Moraine Farm at 1:00 pm on Tuesday March 10. The home and land of Colonel Edward Deeds was the first home in the U.S. to have a private airstrip and also includes an observatory and telescope. The farm is rarely open to visitors so this is a great opportunity to visit this unique home and make some friends from Faith Lutheran at the same time. The group will meet for lunch (optional) at Treasure Island at 11:00 am. Call Faith Lutheran at 253-2156 to RSVP by March 8.

Day of Caring Pancake Breakfast

Come enjoy breakfast at Good Shepherd on Sunday February 22 from 8:00 to 11:30 am. This is the annual Day of Caring Pancake Breakfast. Along with the pancakes and sausage we will have egg casserole muffins and fruit. Tickets are $6.00 for adults, $4.00 for Seniors and children. We will also be collecting items for the hygiene pantry at the breakfast. Since 1991, the Day of Caring has emphasized three goals: raise money for the emergency shelter system and the hunger coalition member agencies, raise public consciousness about the needs of the hungry and the homeless, and encourage volunteerism through continuous education and involvement. 100% of the ticket price goes to feed the hungry in our neighborhood. Most of the food is donated by various sponsors so that all of the money collected at Good Shepherd will go to feed the hungry which is our emphasis this month at Good Shepherd.

Neighbor-to-Neighbor Food Pantry Next Sunday

Be generous with your donations of food to the Neighbor-to-Neighbor Food Pantry next Sunday March 1. Any type of non-perishable food items, or a cash donation, is very much appreciated. This food pantry serves a large area of Kettering and is always in need of your support.

Our Online Directory

We have photographed over seventy-five of our members and they are now displayed on our online directory on our website. If you have not had your picture taken but would like to do so, contact Don Bennett and he will arrange to have someone take your photo. The office will provide you with the password to view the online directory. If you have any questions about using the online directory call Linda at the church office. Thanks to all who have so willingly participated so far.

We Care Arts Annual Spring Auction

We Care Arts is having their annual Spring Auction on Friday March 13. It's an evening of delicious food, rockin' music and some fabulous live and silent auction items. Travel packages and sports goodies are just some of the wonderful things up for bid. Come to the party at the Presidential Banquet Center and know that all proceeds benefit a local cause that empowers people with disabilities. Call 937-252-3937 for reservations. If you have an item to donate to the silent auction, there are donation forms in the church narthex.

Save The Date

All Lutheran women and friends in the area are invited to the Dayton Spring Gathering on Saturday April 11 from 1:00 to 4:00 pm. The guest speaker will be Susan Dyer, speaking on poverty, homelessness and grace. More details to follow. Save the date!!

The Making of Ordinary Saints

This event is coming to Peace Lutheran Church in Gahanna on Friday March 13 and Saturday March 14. All members of SOS are invited to attend. Is your heart longing for a deeper, richer experience of the fruit of the Spirit in your daily life? If so, then this gathering is for you! It will provide...

- ♦ A practical understanding of exactly how the spiritual disciplines function as a means of grace for spiritual formation
- ♦ A fresh retelling of the practice of the spiritual disciplines
- ♦ A lively conversation between son and father about precisely how the spiritual disciplines can help us in our daily life with Christ
- ♦ A doable structure for making genuine progress forward in the kingdom of God

Conference admission includes a copy of "The Making of an Ordinary Saint." More than thirty years after his father's classic book brought them to the masses, Nathan Foster took his own unique path into the spiritual disciplines. As he sought day-by-day to develop habits that would enable him to live more like Jesus, he encountered problems both universal and personal. Along the way, he found creative new ways to practice the disciplines and discovered that a vital, conversational relationship with God was truly within his grasp. "The Making Ordinary Saints" Conference invites you to go deeper into the journey explored in the book. You may just find that holy habits are truly possible for all.

Cost per person is $70; students are $50. Includes lunch and a complimentary copy of "The Making of an Ordinary Saint."
