GSLC ANNOUNCEMENTS & HAPPENINGS

Welcome

We welcome all of our visitors... as guests. We ask that you complete a gold visitor card located in the pew rack and ushers will collect them. Thank you for joining us today.

We ask our members...

to complete a green card and the ushers will them pick up.

Nursery available...

downstairs, for children who need an alternate place during the service. See an usher for assistance.

Prayer Stations... people are available in the front of the sanctuary after each service on Saturday and Sunday. Someone is available to share a prayer with you before you leave.

Prayer and Care... Each week

we gather special prayer requests to share joys and concerns of those in need. Please enter your prayer request in the notebook in the narthex and our prayer team will remember to pray for you throughout the week.

Holy Communion... Everyone is welcome. Please see our Communion Statement in each worship bulletin.

Lectionary Thoughts

Today's reflection is from the Rev Dr. Delmer L. Chilton at www.lectionarylab.com:

Faith is difficult, isn't it? It's difficult to have faith and it's difficult to live faith. Sometimes it's very hard to put our trust in the promises of a God we cannot see, especially when we have lived long enough to see some of our own hopes and dreams fall apart and also to have seen many bad and ugly things happen in the world. It's hard to put all that aside and trust the promise that God loves us and wants us to be well.

Abram and Sari knew how hard it was to trust the promises of God – for years God had been saying you will be the father and mother of multitudes, of a great nation and here they are late in life, as Paul says, they are “as good as dead,” and they have no child, not one. And yet God kept promising. And in the midst of a lot of false steps and misunderstandings and ordinary human-ness; Abram and Sarai kept believing, kept trusting, kept having faith.

And God, in the words of Paul, “reckoned,” their faith, “as righteousness.” To get the full flavor of what Paul is saying, we need to unpack these two words. In my experience, reckon is seldom used in the United States except in the south, and here it has a meaning different from the one intended by the text. The southern, slangy use implies guessing or supposing; “Think it'll snow?” “I reckon it might.” Or it could mean to grudgingly accept; “Can I come by later today?” “I reckon that'll be all right.” The word is quite common in British English with a much more precise meaning; which is to calculate and then come to a conclusion. The question, “How do you reckon?” includes not only one's opinion but also what steps one took to arrive at that answer. Righteousness is the translation of the Hebrew sedeq. It is not the abstract idea of justice or virtue, as in the “righteousness of our cause.” Rather it is right standing and right behavior, within a community. (continued on page 4)

For Paul, it is the faith of Abram and Sarai that God uses to “reckon,” to calculate, to come to a conclusion about, their righteousness, their standing, their relationship with God. Paul is particularly interested in pointing out that Abram and Sarai believed before the law was given, therefore there was no possibility of their obedience to the law being “reckoned” by God as having earned them righteousness. For Paul, obedience follows faith, relationship creates righteousness. Faith comes as a response to the fact that God has reached out to us just as God reached out to Abram and Sarai.

To mark this reaching out, this covenant-making, this love-promise, God changed Abram and Sarai names – calling them Abraham and Sarah. “No longer shall your name be Abram, but your name shall be Abraham, for I have made you the father of a multitude of nations.” “As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her Sarai, but Sarah shall be her name...” (Genesis 17:5, 15)

Neighbor-to-Neighbor Food Pantry This Sunday

Be generous with your donations of food to the Neighbor-to-Neighbor Food Pantry this Sunday March 1. Any type of non-perishable food items, or a cash donation, is very much appreciated. This food pantry serves a large area of Kettering and is always in need of your support.

Lenten Devotionals

The Lenten Devotionals are in the narthex to pick up. If you would be willing to drop one off to one of our homebound members call Mary Ann Sauer at 439-9742.

Seniors Invited to Tour Moraine Farm with Faith Lutheran

The Faith Lutheran Seniors (a social group) have invited GSLC Seniors to a tour of Moraine Farm at 1:00 pm on Tuesday March 10. The home and land of Colonel Edward Deeds was the first home in the U.S. to have a private airstrip and also includes an observatory and telescope. The farm is rarely open to visitors so this is a great opportunity to visit this unique home and make some friends from Faith Lutheran at the same time. The group will meet for lunch (optional) at Treasure Island at 11:00 am. Call Faith Lutheran at 253-2156 to RSVP by March 8.

Council Synopsis - February 19

- ◆ A motion was made to upgrade and expand the wireless internet at GSLC.
- ◆ We will be helping three local families with In-Lieu-of-Lilies donations this Easter.
- ◆ Guidelines and directions for counting offerings has been prepared so it is easier to participate in this ministry.
- ◆ Auditing and inventory of assets at GSLC is currently being updated.
- ◆ Safety/Security Taskforce met and is working on several areas to help our church be a safe and secure building. One important item is to make sure all doors are locked, windows closed, heat is turned down, and lights are turned out when the last person leaves for the evening.
- ◆ Council members are upbeat about the direction our church has been going and the many accomplishments GSLC has made in the past several months.

Fish Fries for Jeremiah's Letter

Saturday March 14 from 5:30 to 7:00 pm at Concordia Lutheran Church, 250 Peach Orchard Avenue in Oakwood. Call 299-1912 for reservations.

Saturday March 21 from 5:00 to 7:00 pm at Faith Lutheran Church, 3315 Martel Drive. Call 253-2156 for reservations.

We Care Arts

Annual Spring Auction

We Care Arts is having their annual Spring Auction on Friday March 13. It's an evening of delicious food, rockin' music and some fabulous live and silent auction items. Travel packages and sports goodies are just some of the wonderful things up for bid. Come to the party at the Presidential Banquet Center and know that all proceeds benefit a local cause that empowers people with disabilities. Call 937-252-3937 for reservations. If you have an item to donate to the silent auction, there are donation forms in the church narthex.

Save The Date

All Lutheran women and friends in the area are invited to the Dayton Spring Gathering on Saturday April 11 from 1:00 to 4:00 pm. The guest speaker will be Susan Dyer, speaking on poverty, homelessness and grace. More details to follow. Save the date!!

In Lieu of Lilies

For our Easter season, we are doing "In Lieu of Lilies" again this year. Feel free to complete the insert in your bulletin with names of people you want to honor or name in memory of. The monies collected this year will go to continued support of: our Adopt-A-Family; our Assistance Cards to people in the community; and anything extra will be given to support the First Lutheran Church Breakfast.

Project Victory

Our mid-week Lenten Offerings are going to The Victory Project, which is a privately-funded 501c3 after-school program, mentoring disengaged young men in our city. Being open year round, six days a week, builds relationships, earning the youth the right to be heard. Sharing dinner together every weeknight feeds them physically, tutoring and working at their micro-enterprise feeds them emotionally and their Bible Studies feed them spiritually.

The Victory Project breaks down the walls of captivity. By undoing the youth's isolated experiences, we expose them to the potential of a positive socio-economic standing through the 3E's curriculum: Education, Entrepreneurship and Enlightenment.

- ♦ The youth, no longer depend on a criminal or social system, which can enable their destructive lifestyles.
- ♦ Finding freedom and independence by obtaining marketable skills, which will allow them to complete in the workforce.
- ♦ Empowering young men to discover the life God intended, which directly reflects our guiding verse: "You're here to be light bringing out the God-colors in the world, God is not a secret to be kept we're going public as a city on a hill." (Matthew 5:14)
