Lectionary Thoughts

Today's reflection is from David Ewart at www.holytextures.com:

So Jesus' actions need to be understood as actions FOR the Temple as God's house, not against it.

Exchanging Roman coins for Temple coins, and buying ritually clean animals for sacrifice were necessary activities for the Temple. These exchanges allowed faithful, observant Jewish people to follow the laws of God by trading necessary, but unclean, everyday goods needed to live in the world of Roman occupation into Temple goods that could properly be offered to God in thanksgiving and praise.

But it is precisely this accommodation to the "real politicks" of the Roman occupation that has led to inevitable corruption and collusion. And this is what Jesus' actions are against; this is what makes his actions FOR the Temple as the house of God, and AGAINST corruption and collusion by Judean elites with the Romans which are insulting and shaming God.

In asking for a sign, the Judean elites are doing what every person responsible for social order ought to do: If someone suddenly starts acting like a Holy Man - over-turning tables; stampeding cattle - the right thing to do is ask for their license, "show us a sign." Showing them a sign would have been like showing a parade permit issued by the proper authorities: I can do this because a higher power has given me permission to do this.

Of course, throughout the book of John, the point is to SEE Jesus, in particular to see God's glory, which will only be revealed at the right time in the right way - through Jesus' death and resurrection. "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up." This isn't exactly the sort of sign the Judean elites were asking for.

Indeed, it would heighten their estimation that Jesus was dangerous; a potential rebel leader. And as they well knew, revolts again Rome were futile and bound to bring bloody reprisals - as did in fact happen about 30 years after Jesus. ~from Pastor Jamie

GSLC Hosting Soup Supper

Good Shepherd will be hosting the Soup Supper and the mid-week service on Wednesday March 11. If you would be willing to supply soup, salad or dessert, please sign the sheet in the narthex. We could also use help in the kitchen for setup and clean up. Call Mary Ann Sauer at 439-9742 if you would be able to help.

In Lieu of Lilies

For our Easter season, we are doing "In Lieu of Lilies" again this year. Feel free to complete the insert in your bulletin with names of people you want to honor or name in memory of. The monies collected this year will go to continued support of: our Adopt-A-Family; our Assistance Cards to people in the community; and anything extra will be given to support the First Lutheran Church Breakfast.

Jeremiah's Letter

Next Sunday March 15 is Jeremiah's Letter Sunday. Please consider donating any of the following items to Jeremiah's Letter: sheets (all sizes, especially queen/full), bath towels, blankets, toilet paper, shampoo, conditioner, soap, deodorant (full size or trial size), toothpaste, tooth brushes, feminine hygiene products, Depends, razors, shaving cream, denture cleansers and adhesives, back packs, sleeping bags, broth-based soups, canned meat, spaghetti/meatballs, canned fruit or vegetables, cereal, laundry detergent, cleaning supplies, and dish soap.

Project Victory

Our mid-week Lenten Offerings are going to The Victory Project, which is a privately-funded 501c3 after-school program, mentoring disengaged young men in our city. Being open year round, six days a week, builds relationships, earning the youth the right to be heard. Sharing dinner together every weeknight feeds them physically, tutoring and working at their micro-enterprise feeds them emotionally and their Bible Studies feed them spiritually.

The Victory Project breaks down the walls of captivity. By undoing the youth's isolated experiences, we expose them to the potential of a positive socio-economic standing through the 3E's curriculum: Education, Entrepreneurship and Enlightenment.

- ◆ The youth, no longer depend on a criminal or social system, which can enable their destructive lifestyles.
- ◆ Finding freedom and independence by obtaining marketable skills, which will allow them to complete in the workforce.
- ◆ Empowering young men to discover the life God intended, which directly reflects our guiding verse: "You're here to be light bringing out the God-colors in the world, God is not a secret to be kept we're going public as a city on a hill." (Matthew 5:14)

Seeking New Office Manager

Good Shepherd will be hiring a new Office Manager in the coming months. Due to health issues of Linda Newcomer's husband and also due to health and personal desires of Judy, both Linda and Judy will be retiring to spend more time with their families. We hope to hire ONE person to replace both Linda and Judy, to work Monday through Friday, 9:30 am to 3:30 pm. The new Office Manager will be trained for all the duties of the office including: receptionist, email communications, working with/leading volunteers, database and website maintenance, and publication of weekly bulletins and announcements, and our quarterly newsletter. This person must have technical skills and be comfortable working in a one-person office, working on his/her own throughout the day and directing volunteers. We would prefer someone who has some experience working in a church office but it is not a requirement.

If you know someone who may be interested in this position feel free to tell them to send a resume to the church office. Deadline for all resumes is Tuesday March 31.

Seniors Invited to Tour Moraine Farm with Faith Lutheran

The Faith Lutheran Seniors (a social group) have invited GSLC Seniors to a tour of Moraine Farm at 1:00 pm on Tuesday March 10. The home and land of Colonel Edward Deeds was the first home in the U.S. to have a private airstrip and also includes an observatory and telescope. The farm is rarely open to visitors so this is a great opportunity to visit this unique home and make some friends from Faith Lutheran at the same time. The group will meet for lunch (optional) at Treasure Island at 11:00 am. Call Faith Lutheran at 253-2156 to RSVP by March 8.

We Care Arts Annual Spring Auction

We Care Arts is having their annual Spring Auction on Friday March 13. It's an evening of delicious food, rockin' music and some fabulous live and silent auction items. Travel packages and sports goodies are just some of the wonderful things up for bid. Come to the party at the Presidential Banquet Center and know that all proceeds benefit a local cause that empowers people with disabilities. Call 937-252-3937 for reservations. If you have an item to donate to the silent auction, there are donation forms in the church narthex.
